-B. A. Bayley, Esq., of Tillamook county arrived yesterday, and will make his residence in Astoria.

-The sidewalk on Main and Chenamus streets, around Brown's building, has been elevated to the proper grade.

-The Hera, of Hume's line, Capt. Miller, eight days from San Francisco is at Kinny's wharf this afternoon.

-Hon. William Reid, late of Dundee, Scotland, is at Astoria awaiting the arrival of friends from Europe by steamer.

- Capt. Windsor, the Veteran Commander, will take the Annie Stewart to Puget Sound next week for Starr Bro's.

- The bark Garibaldi, with Chinese passengers and goods from Hong Kong, arrived this afternoon. The Sam. G. Reed is reported outsi —The interior of the Congregational Church will present a very neat appearance, when the painting is completed, which is being carried along handsomely by Mr. F. Krosel.

-A man named Cole, a soldier at Fort Canby, was drowned in Baker's Bay, off the site of old Pacific city, on Saturday, by the upsetting of a dinghy. He was in company with another man, and when the dinghy upset, and assistance was rendered from the shore, Cole directed the assistants to help his companion as he could help himself. The man who was with him was saved, but Cole was drowned. The body was recovered.

-A private letter from Unity, dated on the 11th, informs us that a skiff was picked up on the weather beach near Cape Hancock on Saturday. Nothing inside but two oars. A small blue rudder was also picked up eight miles north of the Cape, on Wednesday. The same day Mr. J. L. Stout picked up a split-sail about ten feet in size, made of sacks, and a boom-stick spliced and wrapped. Verily the sea is giving up its mysteries, but without revealing the profoundest secrets.

-The man picked up in a starving condition on Smith's Point is an escaped patient from the Asylum. The poor fellow came very near giving up the ghost, but may yet live. We presume it must have been him that was seen floating down the river on a raft, without rudder or oars. How he got to the place where he was found is yet a mystery. Perhaps the discovery of his raft will show that he floated there direct from the Wallamet. He was taken back to the asylum to-day, in charge of Deputy Sheriff Ross.

-Andrew Young caught a salmon last night which had a fish-book in its mouth.

-Firemen are ALL requested to meet at the Engine-house this evening. Don't forget it. Important business.

-The Occident notel-register has for several days past presented a very attractive appearance, from handsome lettering and appropriate designs, made by Mr. Tabor.

-In consequence of the illness of Sheriff Twilight, who has been suffering for some time with chills and fevers, the annual sale of real estate delinquent for taxes, which should begin to-day, has been postponed one

-The Albany firemen will take no part in the Portland-Centennial-Fourth-of-July-1876, unless the regulations adopted by the Judges for the Fire Engine Tournament are modified. Why can't Astoria invite them to come here.

-Capt. Pratt, of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company, informs us that the Willamette Chief, or Fannie Patcon, or both; can be secured for a three days excursion from Albany to Astoria Centennial week.

-A postal card from San Francisco informs us that the Gatherer arrived at Liverpool May 26th, 124 days from Astoria, and will return to this port this vessel was competing with the Western Shore on the trip, but the latter completed the voyage in 102

-Mr. C. Leinenweber returned last night from his search after Williams and Johnson, the lost fishermen. He found the sail, two oars, and eighteen fathom of the net down the beach, fourteen miles south of the bar, but the men were no where to be seen, dead nor alive.

-Mr. John Wood, of South Bend, arrived yesterday via Knappton, en route to Olympia. He informs us that the damages to the Tiernan were so slight that the vessel has been securely repaired, and is now again ready for sea, and will probably sail

Synopsis of Press Dispatches.

"Deadwood" a Rich Camp in the Black Hills.

The Railroad War and Cheap Freights

The Panama Railroad and P. M. S. S. Co. Shake Hands Across the Chasm.

Ex-Speaker Blaine Suddenly Prostrated.

The Effects of Over-work, Excitement and loss of Rest.

—The Chicago Times on Sunday has a dispatch from Bismark stating that a wagon train of twenty-seven teams just arrived from Deadwood mines in the Black Hills reports immense richness. The steamer Yellowstone also arrived on the tenth, confirming reports. We give the report as received, remarking that amongst so many grains of gold there should be some grains for allowance. The wagon train brought $15,000 in dust; the steamer $21,000-$36,000 in all. Four men took out in one day fifteen pounds of gold—$3,600. Another claim yielded from $1,800 to $2,800 per day, two gangs of ten men each, being employed, mining day and night. They ought at that rate to show more than $36,000, with flour at $28 per sack, and other supplies in proportion for 7,000 miners.

-The western-bound freight rates from Boston were dropped several notches on Monday, in consequence of the railway war. A reduction from seventy cents to twenty-five cents per hundred pounds, was made by the Erie road on the 12th, to Chicago. Fares from New York to San Francisco were placed at $100. At these rates it will be impossible that companies will be paid for the handling of goods. It is probable that all the lines will follow suit.

-At a meeting of the Directors of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, held in New York on Saturday the Panama Railroad and Transit Companies agree to admit the Pacific Mail in its connections with the Panama railroad on the same terms made by contract with the Panama Transit company, without any charge for commissions. The mail directors advanced $17,500 each, thus providing a fund to meet the old liabilities and place the company on its pins again.

-The bill passed by the House on Saturday concerning Chinese immigration, is to enforce the strict enforcement of the law of last year relative to coolie and Chinese women imported for immoral purposes, it prescribes the penalties of fine and imprisonment against any collector of customs who neglects or refuses to execute the law when cases covered by it are brought specially to his attention by the affidavits of any two citizens alleging information, belief, etc.

-On Sunday morning a short time before eleven, ex-speaker Blaine left his residence in company with Mrs. Blaine and slowly walked to the Congational Church, Washington City, which is about three fourths of a mile from their home. Just as he reached the church he complained of severe ing waist deep in water.

tering the vestibule, he was so overcome with sudden illness that he came near falling, but this was prevented, and he was assisted to a seat on the steps when he exclaimed: "Oh this pain!" A conveyance having been procured, Mrs. Blaine returned with him home; he then being unconscious. A bed was brought into the front parlor on which he was laid, and a surgeon having been sent for Surgeon-General Barnes, and Drs. Bliss, Cox, Verde, and Pope, they soon appeared and lost no time in cupping the spine and resorting to other counter irritants and remedies. From eleven in the morning until 4 o'clock in the afternoon, he laid unconscious, breathing irregularly. His wife, physicians and other friends remaining at his bedside. During that time the physicians said Blaine was suffering from over excitement of the brain and nervousness superinduced by the recent events in which he has been a prominent actor, the symptoms being aggravated by the weather, which to-day was very oppressive. Several weeks ago Blaine was confined to the house for some days by a low type of malarial fever, but appeared before the subjudiciary committee, who were investigating the charges against him, before he had fully recovered from the effects of that disease. This, with the excitement on his part, both before the committee and in the house, and the large number of persons daily in conference with him, and his attention to his extensive correspondence, including very many telegrams from all parts of the country, especially during the past week, loss of rest and other causes, produced the strain upon his mind that caused his sudden illness. He is slowly recovering.

-Business is getting lively at

-Capt. Kippen was able to walk out upon the streets yesterday.

-Reading in the Oregonian of resterday morning that the water was on a level with Front street, at the foot of Stark, and covered a portion of the back porch at the Cosmopolitan, set us to thinking that perhaps that city will be visited with a flood equal to that of 1$62. Sauvies' Island is to all intents and purposes submerged. Small row boats are passing through portions of the main street in Dalles City, and the water is up to within three feet and eight inches of the high water mark of '62.

-A postal card from the Dixie Thompson, received last night by Emma Hayward, informs us that the Western Union line reached a point two and a half miles above Knappa yesterday, and would be at Knappa to-day. Mr. Thompson, foreman of the construction, thinks they will reach Astoria by July 1st. Mr. Colvic returned to Payallup yesterday. Part of the time the men were work-
